

Downtown Association's Holiday Scavenger Hunt

DEADLINE
DEC. 31, 7:30 PM

Join the community in an effort to stay connected while maintaining appropriate SOCIAL DISTANCE and MASK UP.

How to Play

- 1 In order to be eligible for prizes, you must register at Eventbrite ($10/entry).
- 2 Team or individual registrations are allowed. Winning teams will share their prize.
- 3 Use the back side to write your answers. Clear handwriting will be helpful.
- 4 Clues found must be labeled by location and description.
- 5 All answers will be found within the boundaries of this map.
- 6 The more clues you find, the better chance you have to win a bigger prize. First Prize; ($300 cash), Second Prize ($200), Third Prize ($100 cash).
- 7 Final submissions must be submitted by December 31 at 7:30pm. Drop off your answer sheet at Venue, 514 2nd Ave, 10am -10pm, Mon - Friday and 10am - 7:30pm, Saturday.
- 8 Winners will be notified by Monday, January 4, 2020.

Team Name (be creative) _____

Mailing Address _____

City _____ Zip Code _____

Contact Name / Email _____

Contact Phone _____

Scavenger Hunt Clues

Scavenger Hunt Answers

- 1 We were first -- and here we stand frozen here above the Chena with man's best friend. Which of us stares north?
- 2 I'm pretty in pink in spite of the cold while standing on this street corner. I'm fit to be tied. Who am I and how many of my bunny boots need to be tied?
- 3 I've been here for many years and survived a flood and a road project. It must be the luck of the Irish, how many shamrocks can a place need? Count my shamrocks.
- 4 I was built on the south of the river but now live north of it. What can be found tucked in the little grotto on my sidewalk?
- 5 This place is hiding an Airstream under a dance floor. It's being attacked by a UFO! How many portholes can you count on this alien craft?
- 6 B_N_O! What color is the the letter "N" on it's octagonal signage?
- 7 To help celebrate this holiday season a local "Big" store has how many spruce trees in their display window?
- 8 A traveler can remember their visit to Fairbanks in this corner shop. How many Arctic hairy heads are hanging on the walls?
- 9 This place has coffee so good, they have to keep it "safe." Where is it? And what's it used for now?
- 10 We know our mischievous birds love European pancakes. There are quite a few on the side of this building watching for their chance to steal one. What building is this and how many ravens do you see?
- 11 I'm a treasure-filled building built by 2 brothers for 2 sisters. I'm a well-established landmark covered in bric-a-brac. How many red moose can you count?
- 12 We are nosy little creatures visiting this business for the holiday. We had great interest in putting our cheese in safekeeping. How many of us are there and where are we?
- 13 We are stoic big cats standing guard at this Grecian portico. What are we and what color is the ceiling above us?
- 14 This place is known for it's name in poor parenting. They have great treasures that were once someone else's. But what's that glowing fruit in the window?
- 15 Our national bird overlooks the doorway entrances of this building. Justice was once served up here. What direction are the eagles looking and how many of them are there?
- 16 While walking on the pedestrian path you can find an arch with many points. There is a well-known local politician carved into the material. What am I and who is the politician?
- 17 WWII celebrated our partnership with another country. We stand in the cold, shoulder to shoulder, ready to fly again. Our Cold War partner recently placed a special decoration at this site. What is the landmark and what was placed there?
- 18 Brewskies of all types are served here. I'm hanging out, watching the locals. What color is my mustache?
- 19 Look at those tipsy well-heeled couple hanging above the sidewalk. She in violet and he in pinstripes. Where is this and what color are her pumps?
- 20 I make the sweetest treats in the downtown, and you can buy them by the pound. For the holiday, we've decorated with another favorite candy classic, the Starlight peppermints. How many do you see around our windows?